

Skipton Town Council

FORMAL COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE – ADOPTED NOVEMBER 2015

As with any organisation, from time to time, the Council may get things wrong, or you may feel that the Council hasn't acted in the correct manner.

The vast majority of problems or complaints can be resolved quickly and informally - and Skipton Town Council would always prefer to deal with any matter in this manner, rather than take a more formal route. You should contact the office with details of any issue and they will refer your problem to the most appropriate staff member.

If it proves not to be possible to resolve an issue informally, Skipton Town Council does have a formal Complaints Procedure which should be followed by both the complainant and the Council.

The Formal Complaints Procedure is set out below:

Complaints about Skipton Town Council are dealt with differently depending on the nature of the complaint. Check the list below and decide which area your complaint falls into. Then follow the procedure listed for that type of complaint.

Types of complaint:

- Service delivery
- Financial irregularity
- Procedural irregularity
- Councillor Member conduct
- Employee conduct
- Town Council acting unfairly

These complaints should be dealt with as follows.

Service delivery

In the first instance, complaints about the standard of service provided by Skipton Town Council should be directed to the Chief Officer at Skipton Town Council.

If you are unhappy with the Chief Officer's response you should ask for your complaint to be referred to the Council's Complaints Panel. This is made up of three elected Members of the Council who will sit independently of the remainder of the Council to consider the complaint. You should explain on what basis you are not satisfied with the response from the Chief Officer. The panel will notify you of its decision.

If you remain unhappy with the Panel's decision you should ask for your complaint to be referred to Full Council. The complaint will then be heard by all Members of the Council, except those who sat on the Complaints Panel. You should explain in detail on what basis you are not satisfied with the decision of the Panel.

The decision of Full Council is final.

Financial irregularity

In the first instance, complaints about any financial irregularity should be directed to the Chief Officer at Skipton Town Council.

If you are unhappy with the Chief Officer's response you should ask for your complaint to be referred to the Council's Complaints Panel. This is made up of three elected Members of the Council who will sit independently of the remainder of the Council to consider the complaint. You should explain on what basis you are not satisfied with the response from the Chief Officer. The panel will notify you of its decision.

If you remain unhappy with the Panel's decision you should ask for your complaint to be referred to Full Council. The complaint will then be heard by all Members of the Council, except those who sat on the Complaints Panel. You should explain in detail on what basis you are not satisfied with the decision of the Panel.

The decision of Full Council is final, but if you remain unhappy you may wish to contact the Council's Internal Auditors (Windle & Bowker). Duke House, Duke Street, Skipton, North Yorkshire BD23 2HQ for advice.

Procedural irregularity

In the first instance, complaints about any procedural irregularity should be directed to the Chief Officer at Skipton Town Council.

If you are unhappy with the Chief Officer's response you should ask for your complaint to be referred to the Council's Complaints Panel. This is made up of three elected Members of the Council who will sit independently of the remainder of the Council to consider the complaint. You should explain on what basis you are not satisfied with the response from the Chief Officer. The panel will notify you of its decision.

If you remain unhappy with the Panel's decision you should ask for your complaint to be referred to Full Council. The complaint will then be heard by all Members of the Council, except those who sat on the Complaints Panel. You should explain in detail on what basis you are not satisfied with the decision of the Panel.

The decision of Full Council is final.

Council Member conduct

Complaints about the conduct of individual Town Councillors should be addressed to the Monitoring Officer at Craven District Council who will refer the matter to the Standards Committee – an independent group of Councillors and other appointed officers and advisors formally tasked with reviewing Councillor conduct across local government locally.

Skipton Town Council

Employee conduct

In the first instance, complaints about the conduct of Skipton Town Council employees should be directed to the Chief Officer at Skipton Town Council.

If you are unhappy with the Chief Officer's response you should ask for your complaint to be referred to the Council's Complaints Panel. This is made up of three elected Members of the Council who will sit independently of the remainder of the Council to consider the complaint. You should explain on what basis you are not satisfied with the response from the Chief Officer. The panel will notify you of its decision.

If you remain unhappy with the Panel's decision you should ask for your complaint to be referred to Full Council. The complaint will then be heard by all Members of the Council, except those who sat on the Complaints Panel. You should explain in detail on what basis you are not satisfied with the decision of the Panel.

The decision of Full Council is final.

The Town Council acting unfairly

In the first instance, complaints about the standard of service provided by Skipton Town Council should be directed to the Chief Officer at Skipton Town Council.

If you are unhappy with the Chief Officer's response you should ask for your complaint to be referred to the Council's Complaints Panel. This is made up of three elected Members of the Council who will sit independently of the remainder of the Council to consider the complaint. You should explain on what basis you are not satisfied with the response from the Chief Officer. The panel will notify you of its decision.

If you remain unhappy with the Panel's decision you should ask for your complaint to be referred to Full Council. The complaint will then be heard by all Members of the Council, except those who sat on the Complaints Panel. You should explain in detail on what basis you are not satisfied with the decision of the Panel.

The decision of Full Council is final.

Other complaints

If your complaint is not covered by any of the above, you should contact the Council's Chief Officer, in the first instance, for guidance on how you can proceed.

NOTES:

Town and Parish Councils do NOT come under the jurisdiction of the Local Government Ombudsman except in some very specific circumstances where the Council is providing statutory services on behalf of a principal authority (i.e a District or County Council). The Town Council's Chief Officer will advise you whether such a circumstance applies.

If you feel the Town Council, one or more of its Councillors, or one or more of its employees, has specifically broken the law, you should contact the Police immediately.
